

Season 2 Episode 11

Keith/\2

Mason is in his lab and he fuses together two circuit boards and he places them into a shiny cylinder. Mason turns on the cylinder and it lights up. Mason said, "It works." Jason is sitting on the couch in Mason's lab reading a comic book. Jason said, "If only it did something meaningful." Mason said, "This is my new defense machine. It can save anyone's life from anything." Jason said, "I would like to see that thing try." Jason digs his head back into the comic book. An anvil hanging from the ceiling of Mason's lab falls off and it falls for Mason. The robot intercepts the anvil and throws it off and the anvil crashes into the wall and cracks it. Mason said, "See? It just saved my life." Jason said, "Whatever." A portal opens up and Keith jumps out of it and he rolls into Mason's lab. Keith is wearing a white t-shirt with purple and green boxers and he is holding a sheet of paper rolled up in one of his hands. Jason sees him and stares at him. Keith sees Jason and stares at him. Jason gets up and walks over to Keith. Jason said, "Are you..." Keith said, "Are you..." Keith said, "Want to hear a funny joke?" Jason said, "Sure." Keith said, "What did the gorilla say to the other gorilla?" Jason said, "What?" Keith said, "I am gonna to gorilla you over there and tape your face shut with duct tape." Jason falls on the floor laughing. Jason said, "Keith finally has good tastes." Mason enters the scene and Mason said, "I don't think that's Keith." Keith said, "Sure I am. It is tattooed to my butt. Do you want to see?" Keith sticks his butt to Mason. Mason said, "I will take your word for it."

Mason preps a large machine with a helmet attachment. Jason said, (to Keith) "So you are a different version of Keith from another universe?" Keith said, "Darn right I am." Jason said, "You are so cool. You are much better than the Keith from this universe. Keith in this universe is just some greedy mean jerk." Mason said, "The machine is ready." Mason takes one of the helmets and he places it on Keith's head. Keith said, "What is this doohickey thing gonna do?" Mason said, "I think I know where you are from. I think you are from that alternate universe where bad people are good and good people are bad. Rumor has it that they sent spies and other people from that universe and they are planning on invading this universe. You may have vital information in your mind and you may not realize it. With this device, I can see exactly the things that you have seen. I will know what you know." Jason and Mason look at the computer screen and it shows a library. Keith sits down in the lounge of the library and he is in his purple and green boxers and he is reading a joke book. Mason reads the text in the joke book. Mason said, "'Hand me downs of King Tut?' What kind of jokes are those." Jason falls on the floor laughing. Jason said, "I think my gut is going to burst." Mason continues to view the screen. Suddenly, Dark Jason appears on the screen and he picks up Keith and holds him by his shirt. Jason yells, "What do you know about Dr. Gruzzard, the rebel leader." Keith said, "Me no know." Dark Jason said, "We could know and have you get a better education." Jason looks at the screen and Jason said, "I remember that guy. That's the guy that framed me. I hate that guy's guts." Mason said, "Something is up here." Mason looks over at Keith and he sees he has a sheet of paper with blue prints on it. Mason takes the blue prints and he has a look at it. He sees it is a giant laser dish and it is aimed into a universe portal. Keith is disconnected from the machine and he looks over the plans with Jason and Mason. Mason said, "Do you know what these are?" Keith said, "Someone threw those plans in my hand and pushed me through a portal. I don't know what it is or anything about any of this stuff." Mason said, "My only theory is that people in the other universe are planning on destroying this universe and these are the plans. The rebels probably sent them here so the world empire or whatever it is called would not have them so they cannot destroy this universe. I need to lock these up. I don't think I have much more use for you, Keith. Enjoy this universe. Hang out with Jason. Do whatever you want to do." Jason and Keith look at each other and smile.

The Keith from this universe sits in his office in his mansion. He looks over papers and then a portal opens up and a two buff soldiers walk out. Keith looks at them. Keith said, "May I help you?" They confront Keith. They grab onto him. They said, "There he is. We are taking you back for questioning. You didn't think you could get away with this, did you?" The two men grab onto Keith and they take him into the portal. Keith is placed in a seat and General Williams (Captain Fusion in the dark universe) enters the scene. General Williams said, "Aiding the enemy is a serious crime in this universe. You are guilty of treason." Keith said, "I don't know what you are talking about." General Williams said, "You left this universe this morning with the only copy of the blueprints we need to build out laser dish. Where are they?" Keith said, "Look, I know nothing about what it is you want. I will gladly help you find whatever it is. I am the second smartest person in the world." General Williams said, "Prove it." Keith is released and there is a montage of him building weapons and gadgets and robots. Keith shows the General an equation and Keith solves it and the General is impressed. The General said, "I like your work Keith. I always thought you were nothing but an idiot. I guess I was wrong. I now place you in command of my operation to go to the other universe and find those plans and bring them to me." Keith salutes General Williams and Keith said, "Yes, my master."

Mason conducts more experiments in his lab. Mason swirls around some formulae in a flask. Mason looks up his desk and he sees Jason sitting on it in blue and red boxers. Mason gives Jason a stern look. Mason said, "What are you doing on my desk and where are your pants?" Jason said, "My new friend Keith doesn't wear pants and I totally see why he doesn't." Keith enters the lab with armfuls of Orange Soda. Keith said, "Ready to set these off?" Jason jumps off the desk and he said, "Do I ever." Mason said, "Why don't the two of you go to some place where I can work alone in private? Like Pamela's." Jason and Keith look at each other. Keith said, "Who's Pamela?" Jason said, "The prettiest and funniest girl in existence." Jason and Keith raise their arms and they dash out of Mason's lab.

Jason and Keith are on Pamela's front door step and Pamela answers the door. She sees Jason and Keith wearing white shirts with boxers. Pamela gives them a stern look. Pamela said, "Jason, you come here in your underwear and you bring a friend along to do the same thing?" Jason said, "Well, you see..." Pamela said, "I love boys that come over to my place in their underwear. You get a kiss for that." Pamela kisses Jason on the cheek. Pamela goes to Keith and she gives him a kiss on the cheek. Keith said, "I think I'm in love." Jason said, "Too bad she's already taken." Jason and Keith jump on her trampoline with Pamela and they do funny stunts.

Mason is in his lab and he pours a red substance into a green substance. Keith's voice said, "I wouldn't do that if I were you." Mason pours it in and it explodes and Mason is thrown to the other end of the lab. Mason walks back to the spot and he sees Keith there. Mason said, "I thought I sent you over to Pamela's place." Keith said, "I know you have those plans and I must have them. Search the place." Buff soldiers rip apart Mason's lab and they search for the blueprints. Mason said, "What's with this?" Keith said, "I am your Keith if you have not figured it out yet and these are my men searching for the plans." Mason said, "Keith, don't make a fool of yourself. You don't know what the plans could do. They can mean the end of this universe." Keith said, "This universe sucks anyways." A buff soldier finds Mason's indestructible safe. He smashes it on a table and it does not break. He throws it into the air and kicks in and smashes it into the wall next to the anvil from earlier and the safe does not break nor does it show any signs of damage. Keith has a look at the safe. Keith shakes it around and he said, "There's only paper in here. I can tell from the sound. This must be where Mason is keeping the plans." One of the soldiers said, "We also need to find our version of Keith that brought them into this universe." Keith said, "You are right. We need to punish that impostor. Mason said something about him being sent to Pamela's place. I think I know where that is. Come all." Keith leaves the lab and all the soldiers follow him out. Mason takes off his shoe and he pulls out some money and cards and he finds the plans. Mason said, "They did not get their plans and now they are going to do something bad to Jason and the good Keith. It is my fault since I told them they are at Pamela's place. I need to do something about this. I need a lifesaver." Mason sees his robot from earlier. Mason jumps on it and he flies out of the lab.

Jason, Keith, and Pamela play some stupid game and they throw themselves towards the walls of a large play room. Then, the room changes and they are in some space war. They arm themselves with weapons and they fire laser blasts at robots in space and they explode. They fly around triangles in space. Then a hole in the wall explodes and buff soldiers storm the place. They aim their weapons at Jason, Keith, and Pamela. The buff soldier yells, "Freeze! Don't move dirtbags!" Jason shoots at them with his blaster but it does nothing. Jason throws the blaster at the buff soldier and it bounces off his head and his head looks like it is made out of rubber. The buff soldier said, "You think you are smart but you are not. Pull the plug." The soldiers pull the plug to Pamela's virtual reality room and it is shut off. They pick up Jason and Keith. The Keith from this universe walks in. He goes to the buff thug soldier holding Jason and Keith. This universe Keith said, "It looks like the imposter has finally been caught. It is not nice to pretend to be other people. You shall be punished for your acts." A humanoid giant fighting robot enters the scene. The robot picks up Keith and spins him around and throws him out of the hole in the wall. The buff soldiers jump on the robot and the robot kicks off the buff soldiers.

The soldiers hit the walls and they break into metal and bolts. More soldiers pile in and the fighting robot takes out a laser blaster and blasts down all the soldiers and they are nothing but piles of scrap metal. Then, an even bigger robot enters the scene. It is General Williams in a robot mech that is larger and has visible red energy flowing around it. The fighting robot jumps and kicks General Williams in the face. General Williams grabs onto the leg of the fighting robot and throws it into the wall. The fighting robot gets up and it takes out two pink laser swords and it slices off the arms and legs of General Williams' robot. General Williams' robot grows another set of arms and legs and they are made of a red plasma. The fighting robot strikes the sword at the red plasma and it does nothing. General Williams said, "You are a sitting duck now." The fighting robot runs away from the robot and it runs around in circles. It is being chased by General Williams. General Williams changes direction and crashes into the fighting robot.

General Williams picks up the fighting robot and rips its head off. He then rips the body cover off revealing Pamela was inside it this whole time controlling it. General Williams grabs Pamela out of the robot. General Williams said, "You are coming with me. You are all going back into my universe and you are all going to get arrested and be charged for aiding enemies. You do not know what true punishment is." Then, Mason's lifesaving robot falls from the ceiling and it smashes General Williams in the head. He falls out of his robot and he rolls over to the other end of the room. Mason lands down from the ceiling. Everyone cheers him on. Mason said, "I told you that robot would come in handy for saving your lives." Jason said, "I see what you mean now. Can I give General Williams the punishment?" Mason said, "I guess you can. After I place him in my machine."

Jason, Mason, good Keith, and Pamela are in Mason's lab. General Williams is connected to the machine and the screen is displaying military plans from the other universe. It shows an invasion plan for the universe Jason and Mason live in. Mason said, "This does look very bad. It looks like our universe is in sheer danger." Jason said, "Can I give the punishment now?" Mason said, "I guess you can." Jason sticks his head into General Williams. Jason said, "I will begin by putting on this musical I wrote and then I will make you watch this epic long list of bad crappy movies." Jason hands a long list to General Williams. Jason and good Keith put on top hats and they sing songs from crappy musicals. Mason takes the plans and he puts them in his paper shredder. Mason said, "I wonder where our Keith is?" Keith is sitting in a throne room in China. People are serving Keith. Keith said, "This is the life. I could never get sick of this."
